PRICE 5 CENTS

KAY SPENCE IS RULED OFF.

LIKEWISE "DUTCH" BROWN, FOREMAN OF HIS STABLE AT CITY PARK.

Judges Find That Brown and Spence Had a Hand in the Drugging of Grenade—Jack Dolan's Good Race.

New Orleans, La., March 5.—Judges Trevelyan and Murphy, though still prosecuting investigation of the drugging of the horse Grenade on Thursday last at City Park, today announced that as a result of the evidence at hand owner Kay Spence and his foreman William (Dutch) Brown, are ruled off the turf. The ruling was handed out read as follows: "For offensive touting, Kay Spence and William (Dutch) Brown, are ruled off the turf. The horses owned by Spence—Keynote, Magistrate and La Thorpe—are included in the ruling."

The story as told by people who claim to have knowledge of the case is that Brown was the person who "framed up" the game. He obtained chloral at a downtown drugstore and either gave it to the horse himself or influenced some one in James McCormick's stable to administer the drug. At all events, Brown is said to have been the chief perpetrator. He let Spence in on the deal and the latter, it is alleged, endeavored to have a bookmaker lay against the horse. Spence is widely known in the west. He brought out and developed jockey Aubuchon. Brown has been employed in the east by various owners during the past ten years. He rubbed First Mason and Colonial Girl for C. E. Rowe last summer and previous to that he worked for S. C. Hildreth and W. M. Rogers. Brown disappeared very suddenly on Friday last when he found that the judges had information as to his connection with the affair.

By his victory in the third race at City Park today, Jack Phillips' Derby candidate, Jack Dolan, made it appear as though he is the best three-year-old shown at either track this winter. Under unfavorable weight conditions Jack Dolan beat his opponents behind him. Jack Dolan ran behind Massive until straightened out in the stretch where he moved up and finished with a rush.

The stable of W. C. Daly will leave here for Benning on Thursday. Several other stables will leave for the Washington track within the next ten days. J. B. Lewman received word from Louisville, Ky., that one of his broodmares, Tarpeia, died yesterday, while foaling. Tarpeia was the dam of W. H. Snyder and Co.'s Trapper.

Hugh McCarren's Miss Jack died at Midway, Ky., while foaling twins. McCarren has eleven mares at Shipp's farm and five of them have already slipped their foals.

Jockey C. Morris was suspended by starter Cassidy for two days for disobedience at the post. Jenkins Brothers today disposed of Iole and Percy Clark to T. & P. Morrison for $1,000.

RAM'S HORN IS IN SUPERIOR CONDITION.

Easy Victory Under Heavy Impost — Ben Hodder Lucky to Beat Goldsmith for Second.

New Orleans, La., March 5.—Ram's Horn won his race with ease at Crescent Park today. The 130 pounds he shouldered did not seem to bother him. Perrine kept him well out from the rail all the way—evidently to avoid any chance of the horse being cut down—and took the lead when he wanted to. If Captain Williams can keep him in his present form there is no question but that he will render a good account of himself both at Memphis and in the east. Ben Hodder, the Derby candidate, which finished second to him, was lucky to beat Goldsmith, which had unusual difficulties to overcome, considering the small size of the field, but for all that his race was a creditable one and lost him none of his Derby following.

Jockey Redfern will have his first mount of the meeting tomorrow on hunkpik, a bad horse, but in with a bad lot. As the weight is 120 pounds, he will have no trouble in making it. Lucien Lyne will also ride, providing Rapid Water starts. He is in the fourth race and has enough weight up for any one to ride. It is, however, doubtful if he goes. Disobedient, which is really the Derby favorite, makes his first start here, and a line on his chances can be drawn through Guiding Star, a prominent candidate which has raced several times during the winter.

JOCKEY W. SMITH IN TROUBLE AT OAKLAND.

Puts Up a Faulty Ride on Theo Case—Del Fountain Shows Losing Tickets.

San Francisco, Cal., March 5.—Jockey W. Smith was disciplined for his faulty ride on Theo Case, favorite in the fifth race won by Buchanan. Del Fountain, owner and trainer of the horse, was exonerated, he having satisfied the stewards of the loss of heavy wagers. The day's racing at Oakland commenced inauspiciously for the favorite, Peerless Lass and Sylvia Talbot, both prohibitive favorites, lametably failed their backers. There was plenty of rejoicing during the remainder of the afternoon, as public choices came to the fore with satisfactory regularity.

Jockey L. Williams has been ill again. It is said that he indulges too often in the flowing bowl.

Jockey W. Davis returns to New York March 20. He has been re-engaged to ride for A. J. Joyner during the coming season on Metropolitan tracks.

Jere Dunn is seriously ill. He has just undergone an operation for cancer of the throat and is in a bad way.

J. O. KEENE REFUSES $25,000 FOR RADTKE.

Offer Is Made by Hunter Raine After Lad Rides Four Winners at Oaklawn.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 5.—Jockey Radtke added greatly to his fame and gave an exhibition of horsemanship on two occasions that will long be remembered by those who witnessed the sport at Oaklawn this afternoon. It was his good riding that scored victory for Pontotoc and Mafalda. The lad's ability was quickly recognized by the spectators and the rider was given a long ovation on each occasion when returning to the scales. Radtke also won on Barbaros and San Primo. The quartet of winners were all from the stable of his contract employer J. O. & G. Keene. After the racing was over, J. O. & G. Keene made to Jack Keene by Hunter Raine of Memphis. The offer was promptly refused. C. T. Gardner furnished the other pair of winners for the afternoon, Haughty taking the initial race, and Nissa, the luckiest of the others, taking the youngest race. The start in this race was starter Snyder's worst effort since taking up his duties here. Three of the eleven horses were left at the post, and the majority of the others being away in a tangled condition. Haughty and Nissa were both ridden by jockey Callus, the victory on Haughty being the first of his short career.

Today's arrivals included "Whitey" Langdon. Several stables, including that of Walter Gum, got in today. There is again a rumor that Essex Park may attempt a race meeting this spring. William Shannon, the principal owner of the plant, will, in all probability, leave for New Orleans tomorrow to confer with members of the American Turf Association and attend a meeting of that organization to be held in the Crescent City next Thursday. At that meeting it is said, it will be fully determined by Mr. Shannon what action he will take regarding Essex Park.

LATONIA'S STAKE ENTRIES CLOSE MARCH 15.

Cincinnati, O., March 5.—Stakes to be decided during the spring meeting at Latonia will number eleven. The Latonia Derby and the Latonia Oaks closed last year. Entries to the other nine events, which are as follows, will close March 15:

Queen City Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, 1 1/8 miles, $12,500 guaranteed, $25 to act; the nomination, $100 additional to start. Weights will be announced three days prior to the race by board of handicappers, consisting of W. O. Farmer, Lyman H. Davis and Joseph A. Murphy. Clipsetta Stakes, 2-year-olds, fillies, five furlongs; $1,250 added.

Harold Stakes, 2-year-olds, colts, five furlongs; $1,250 added. Cincinnati Trophy, 2-year-olds, colts and fillies, five and one-half furlongs; $2,000 added and a silver cup donated by Julius Fleischmann.

Merchants' Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, selling, one mile; $1,250 added. Brewers' Exchange Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, six furlongs; $1,250 added.

Kentucky Steeplechase Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, Club House Course; $1,000 added. Cincinnati Hotel Spring Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, one and one-eighth miles; $1,250 added.

Decorations Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, one and one-sixteenth miles; $1,500 added. The meeting will open May 30, with the Decoration Handicap as the feature. The Queen City Handicap will be decided June 16. There is to be no renewal of the Latonia Derby and Oaks for 1907. The Latonia Jockey Club has plans for better events in the near future.

TICHERON IS TO HAVE A NEW STRING.

The racing stable of J. H. Tichener & Co., which Henry McDaniel has successfully campaigned in California this winter, is being disposed of at private sale. This, however, does not mean that the local firm intends to retire from racing or that trainer McDaniel will sever his connection with the establishment, as was intimated in recent dispatches from Lexington, Ky. "All of the horses, with the possible exception of Good Luck, will be sold if anything like fair prices can be obtained," said a representative of the firm yesterday. "Mr. McDaniel will leave Los Angeles for Memphis in about ten days and the young horses that Charles Hughes has been handling at Lexington will be sent to Mr. McDaniel at Montgomery Park. Mr. Tichener has certainly no dissatisfaction with the work of his trainer, for he has won twenty-two races in California in three months, among them being the California Derby at Oakland with Good Luck and the Rose Stakes at Ascot Park with Rubric. His winnings for these races foot up $10,355."

In line with the above a dispatch from Los Angeles last night reported the sale of Foxhall and Crowshead to William Walker. The price stated was $4,000.

CHINN BILL COMES UP TODAY.

Frankfort, Ky., March 5.—The Chinn racing commission bill was held back today at the request of resident Charles Granger and others interested in the New Louisville Jockey Club, but will be called up tomorrow morning. Senator Chinn says the measure is certain to be passed. An amendment will likely be adopted to prevent the commission from having absolute power to refuse a regularly incorporated racing association a license to operate. It is possible that some legislation will try to call on an anti-poolroom amendment, but this will be defeated, say the friends of the bill.

SIMONS SELLS HIS YOUNGSTERS.

New Orleans, La., March 5.—In the sales ring of Messrs. Hardy and Ayer, by electric light tonight, Albert Simons disposed of a number of two-year-olds he has been racing here. Blue Dale went to J. H. McCormick for $1,200; Edward Wilder to W. Gannon, for $2,550; Money, to Captain Capo, for $400; Chamblet, to J. H. McCormick, for $1,500; Red Ruler, to J. W. Briggs, for $350; Yachting Girl, to H. McCarren, Jr., for $600 and Tom Plunkett, to J. P. Mayberry, for $125.

Captain Johnson was sold to A. Gehrke for $95 and Pink Root to F. S. Burgess for $65.

TOM MILSON FALLS DEAD.

New Orleans, La., March 5.—Tom Milson, well known on the western turf and for years employed by "Hops" Landman as cashier in his book, dropped dead in the lobby of the Grunewald Hotel tonight about 8 o'clock. Milson was employed at Crescent Park as cashier in Eddie Austin's book and was at the track this afternoon. His home was in Nashville, Tenn., where his parents reside.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Hon. Perry Belmont has been re-elected president of the Turf and Field Club.

There are about three hundred horses in training at the Lexington track.

Monet has won six successive races this year. In his other start he was third.

Up in Canada they say that J. E. Seagram will have a particularly strong stable this year.

Cruzados has been placed in the stud at E. J. Baldwin's Santa Anita ranch in California.

J. O. Keene says he is having his troubles keeping the flatterers from spoiling Jockey Radtke.

Julius Bauer will ship his racing stable from Kenmore Farm in Kentucky to Belmont Park about April 1.

Steeplechase jockey Tim Donohue has gone to Benning to get in shape for the saddle. He now weighs 136 pounds.

Velours, in Frank Bruhns' stable at Nashville, is a three-year-old that the workwatchers are talking about. Just tab him.

"Rub" May is getting Toots Mook ready at Memphis for the Tennessee Oaks. Her preparation for this race is to be most careful.

The judges' stand at Churchill Downs has been moved nearer the clubhouse. This was done that the stretch might be lengthened.

The Santa Catalina Consolation, scheduled for Saturday next, is the last of the stake events to be decided at Ascot Park this season.

John W. Schorr, it is said, has commissioned J. O. Keene to buy for him three or four horses that Electric Spark caught Globe Runner firing from her early efforts and took second place without much effort. Globe Runner ran well to the stretch, but was all out at the end. Simplicity ran as if short. Loretta H. ran well and finished gamely. Verbosity showed a flash of early speed.

Margaret O. was a contender from the start, saved ground when turning for home and wore down Perfect and out-gamed her in the final strides. Moreland riding a good and well-judged race on the winner. Perfect showed a fine turn of early speed, but too much use was made of her and she tired, but held on gamely. Owasca was close up all the way. Raining Leaves and Intrigue finished fast. First Premium seemed to be hopelessly outrun until in the last furlong, when he came on fast and wore the leaders down, but had to be hard ridden until near the finish. Dr. Coffey showed the most early speed, but tired when challenged. Third Alarm ran well to the stretch, but quit when the final drive came. Hocus Pocus had no mishaps.

Went to post at 4:02. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Blennenworth was saved for a mile and came fast in the stretch, taking the shortest route, but had to be ridden to the limit at the end to stand the rush of Aurumaster. TO RACE INDEFINITELY AT THE OLD TRACK.

Western Jockey Club Grants Permission—Nothing
 Said About Memphis Dates in Official Report.

Stewards of the Western Jockey Club held their regular monthly meeting yesterday. They granted to the New Louisiana Jockey Club permission to extend its meeting from March 24 for an indefinite number of days. The New Louisiana Jockey Club, which usually follows the Crescent City Jockey Club with one week's racing at the old track in New Orleans, was originally granted the dates from March 19 to 24. This action means that Charles S.
 Bush and his associates intend to keep open at Crescent Park until the meeting at City Park is ended, and they may go a bit further.

Nothing was said about the extension at Oaklawn from March 31 to April 14. The stewards probably regard that matter as covered in the original allotment to the Hot Springs track which reads "thirty-one days or more, from February 17.

Neither was there ratification of the twenty-one days—April 16 to May 9—chosen by the New Memphis Jockey Club for the spring meeting at Memphis Park. It is understood that the stewards will give their sanction to these dates at their April meeting.

The Denver-Overland Racing Club made application for dates for a summer meeting, but that matter was passed until next month.

C. J. Forsythe, who was ruled out at Delmar Park in 1902, was reinstated.

Licenses of persons participating in unrecognized meetings were revoked, as usual.

The following persons and horses, provisionally reinstated by official stewards, were restored to good standing:

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. J. K. and Others, Chicago. See reply to G.
 E. B.

Cyrus, Chicago. Your bet won and should be paid at 10 to 1.

F. P., Detroit, Mich. Have no present knowledge of the man but he is probably in New York.

F. Q., Danville, Ill. Quotations were correct.
 Same quoted in New Orleans papers. Heavy place and show backing account for this.

Edw. O. R., St. Louis, Mo. Will have the matter looked into, but think the prices absolutely correct and your informants absolutely wrong.

R. X. Y., Chicago. Your suggestions are well founded, but such reforms are difficult of enactment into racing law under present conditions.

G. E. B., Chicago. Bets accepted should be paid where reasonable ground for suspecting fore-knowledge of results exists, but as a matter of fact in the case you cite, the horses went to the post that day at 2 p. m.

Billy and Lou, Cincinnati, O. We have no reason to doubt that the post time of the race inquired about was correctly given. Our correspondent at that track is a careful and experienced man who gives especial attention to accuracy in such matters.

G. E. B., St. Louis, Mo. Backers of Wire In in the fourth race at Oakland Saturday won unless notified by the bookmakers at the time of making their bets that added starters run for the book.

 In the absence of notice of such rule they are entitled to payment at the rate of 9 to 10, the reduced price being due to the deduction of Corri-gan's odds.

of a strenuous early pursuit of the winner. Mimox unexpectedly failed to stay after running forwardly for six furlongs, putting up a bad race. Holson's choice was prominent from the start and going well at the end. Dotage finished well up. Sylvia Talbot was left standing, stripped quite sore in front and probably refused to break.

Winner—B. g. by Royal Emblem—Lillian Belle (trained by L. D. Hall).
Went to post at 2:56. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Bantam broke in close quarters, but moved up quickly into forward contention and straightened out for home with a slight lead, eventually winning by inches in a terrific closing drive. Dargin, shut off and pulling up at the start, set sail after the winner and, practically lapping him all the way, was never quite able to get up. MIMO was reserved in the early running and outstayed Tam O'Shanter for third place in a long end sprint. Tam O'Shanter, after setting the early pace, put up a game effort. Rusticate finished well up and going fast. Prestano made up considerable ground in a surprisingly good effort. Profitable was dry and listless.

Scratched—60261 Mountbank, 101; 60605 Chief Bush, 101; 60630 My Order, 95.

Winner—Blk. c. by Sain—Marjorie (trained by H. R. Brandt).
Went to post at 3:19. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Buchanan, skillfully reserved in close attendance on the pacemaker for half the journey, suddenly stole into a long and winning lead on the far turn, eventually getting home under slight pressure. Dixie Lad, on the inside bad going, was in forward contention from the start and, after his rider was caught napping on the far turn, could never quite get up in a remarkable effort. Lone Wolf liked the difficult going and outstayed the others through the stretch. Theo Case was messed about, shut off and knocked to the rear on the far turn and was never dangerous afterwards. Phalanx showed fine early speed, but was handicapped by the going and is very good.

Scratched—(60796) Massa, 102.

Overweights—Phalanx, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g. by Salvado—Miss Alice III. (trained by J. McNamee).
Went to post at 3:44. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Fred Bent, after being reserved for the first half, was sent along and, being vigorously handled, scored on the inside after fierce contention at the end. Sizz, also trailing early, came with a belated end rush in the bad inside going and was best. Jake Moose was in forward and game contention throughout, running a surprisingly good race. Pentagon suddenly quit in the last sixteenth when he appeared to have a good chance. Ebel Thatcher retired early. Tavora had no chance with his rider. Queen Rec was very sore.

Winner—Blk. h. by Atheling—Judy (trained by E. J. Ramsey).
Went to post at 4:12. At post 3 minutes. Start very bad. Won easily; second the same. Judge beat the barrier and won all the way never seriously menaced. Blumenthal, lengths behind at the start, went in strenuous pursuit of the leader, but was never able to get up in an extra good effort. Bekighted, nearly left, closed an immense gap and may have been best. Salable had no mishaps and tired badly in the closing drive. Roycroft, flatfooted at the start, dropped quickly to the rear and had no chance. The others were beaten off at the start and the race was a procession.

Overweights—Little Joker, 3 pounds; Himself, 2; Blumenthal, 2.

Ina Gray showed fine speed and lasted better than expected. Somewhat fully ran his race and had no mishaps. Kingwalden tired in the last furlong. Susie Gregg quit badly in the final furlong. Masters Prim was away poorly and closed a big gap. Kuropatkin was timidly ridden.

Winner—B. f. by Jean Beraud—Nellie G. (trained by J. O. Gray).
Went to post at 3:01. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Nissa was lucky and broke flying, flashed into an early lead and, saving ground on the turn, held command and won well in hand. Miss Kingcette lost much ground by going wide into the stretch, but hung on well in the final drive. Miss Cesarion ran well, but tired slightly near the end. Tres Joli, practically left, ran a good race, closing a big gap. Rosalia had no mishaps. Jardiniere caused a jam at the start and was responsible for the others getting left.

Scratched—60655 Estelle H., 110; 60655 Bitter Queen, 110; Fonsella, 105.

Winner—R. c. by Bridgewater—Barbara (trained by G. H. Keene).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Barbaros, well handled, forced the early pace and, assuming the lead when called on, won easily. Bullfinch ran a fairly good race and suffered slightly from interference by Barbaros when the latter went to the front, but was not good enough to beat the winner today. Charley Thompson was taken wide all the way and given a weak ride.

Scratched—60688 Mayor Johnson, 95; (60781) San Primo, 107; 60781 King Ellsworth, 98.

Winner—B. c. by Juvenal—Prosia (trained by G. H. Keene).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Pontotoc was saved from the fast pace in the early stages, moved up fast while rounding into the stretch, caught Luretta in the last furlong and came away with ease. Luretta was much used in an effort to race Lucullus into defeat and tired badly when called on for a final effort. Mayor Johnson began slowly and trailed hopelessly, lost much ground by going wide into the stretch, then finished fast and got up for third place in the final stride. Lucullus showed a high order of speed, but quit badly in the last quarter. Kate Zitt tired.

Scratched—60783 Loricate, 115; 60718 Bendigo, 109; 60469 J. W. O'Neill, 105.
